Dear Mr. Fox,

Recently, in an effort to provide realistic "hands on" training for Probation Officers in San Diego, you graciously offered to conduct a presentation for Adult Field Services Intensive Supervision Officers. The risk assessment training was conducted on February 2, 2006. The fact that you had taken the time to do such a presentation speaks to your dedication to training for law enforcement personnel.

The officers who attended your presentation are responsible for supervising a variety of offender types. These include sex offenders, domestic violence offenders, family violence cases, elder abuse and child abuse cases and pregnant women who have histories of drug abuse. This sex offender specific training is invaluable information when supervising sex offenders.

Training opportunities such as this are all too infrequent. Erik, the Probation Department, and in particular the officers and staff who were able to attend your training would like to thank you and express our appreciation for your contribution.

Sincerely,

LISA DONOHOO
Director, Ohio Street Probation Department
